November 24, 2020, 3pm -4 pm

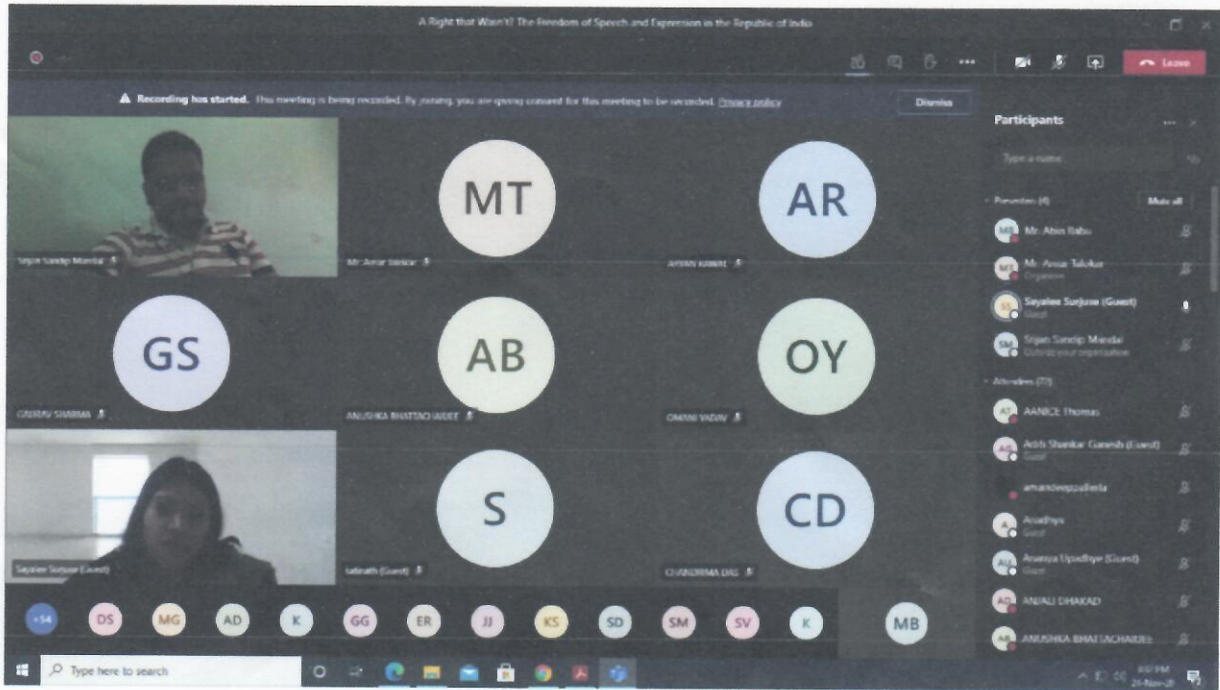

Human Rights Cell of Symbiosis, Law School, Nagpur organized a webinar on the topic "A Right that Wasn't? The Freedom of Speech and Expression in the Republic of India" on November 24, 2020. The webinar was delivered online by Dr. SrijanSandip Mandal, faculty, Center for Public History, SrishtiManipal Institute of Art, Design and Technology.

Dr. SrijanSandip Mandal teaches and manages the postgraduate program in Public History and Heritage Interpretation. He specializes in legal history, specifically the constitutional rights of citizens. He holds a PhD in History from the University of Hyderabad.

The webinar gave insights into the historical trajectories of the Freedom of Speech and Expression in the Republic of India. The speaker also traced the discussions and debates on the Freedom of Speech and Expression in the constitutional assembly and also stressed on the need to defend the Right to Freedom of Speech and Expression in the contemporary world.

The webinar was attended by students and faculty members of Symbiosis Law School and members from other institutes. The talk was followed by a lively interaction where questions were raised by the participants and enthusiastically answered by the speaker.

The Webinar was organized under the guidance of Dr. Sukhvinder Singh Dari, Director, Symbiosis Law School, Nagpur. The session was moderated by Prof. SayaleeSurjuse. Mr. AbinBabu, faculty in-charge of Human Rights Cell proposed the vote of thanks.
