Celebration of Matribhasha Diwas on 24th February 2021.

Report

Every year UNESCO celebrates International Mother Languages Day on 21st February to promote unity in diversity and international understanding, through multilingualism and multiculturalism.

This year it had been decided by UGC to celebrate Matribhasha Divas on 21st February 2021 to promote the use of mother tongue.

Symbiosis Law School, Nagpur celebrated Matribhasha Diwas on 24th February 2021 by conducting the following activities.

1. Online Essay competition.
2. Online Painting competition.
3. Songs based on the theme (Matribhasha).

There was enthusiastic participation from students. Students sent essay on Matribhasha, they also sent painting prepared by them on the above mentioned theme.

Students emphasized the utility and global need of English as a lingua franca. They felt that this was one of the reasons why education in mother tongue is not sustainable.

1. Secondly, they professed a sense of pride for their respective mother tongues by alluding to the poetry and literature in their essay. It also showed how mother tongue was an indicator of their cultural identity.
2. Their painting has also highlighted that if they develop a deeper understanding and proficiency in their mother tongue, it will prove to be a strong foundation for learning a second language.
3. Their written work echoed the fact that most inner expression is done through mother tongue and that it is extremely important for a person's emotional and mental growth.

4. The best painting was submitted by Shashwati Chowdhury (First Year student)

5. Best Essay were submitted by Ms Pranjal Pagaria, First year (BA LLB) & Ms. Khushi Soi

As a conclusion of this competition, Director of the Institute, Dr. Sukhvinder Singh Dari and several senior Professors also shared their happiness on the overwhelming response from the students.

It was a very engaging and thought-provoking event.
