

Symbiosis Law School, Nagpur

Report

Webinar on "Human rights and Criminal Justice"

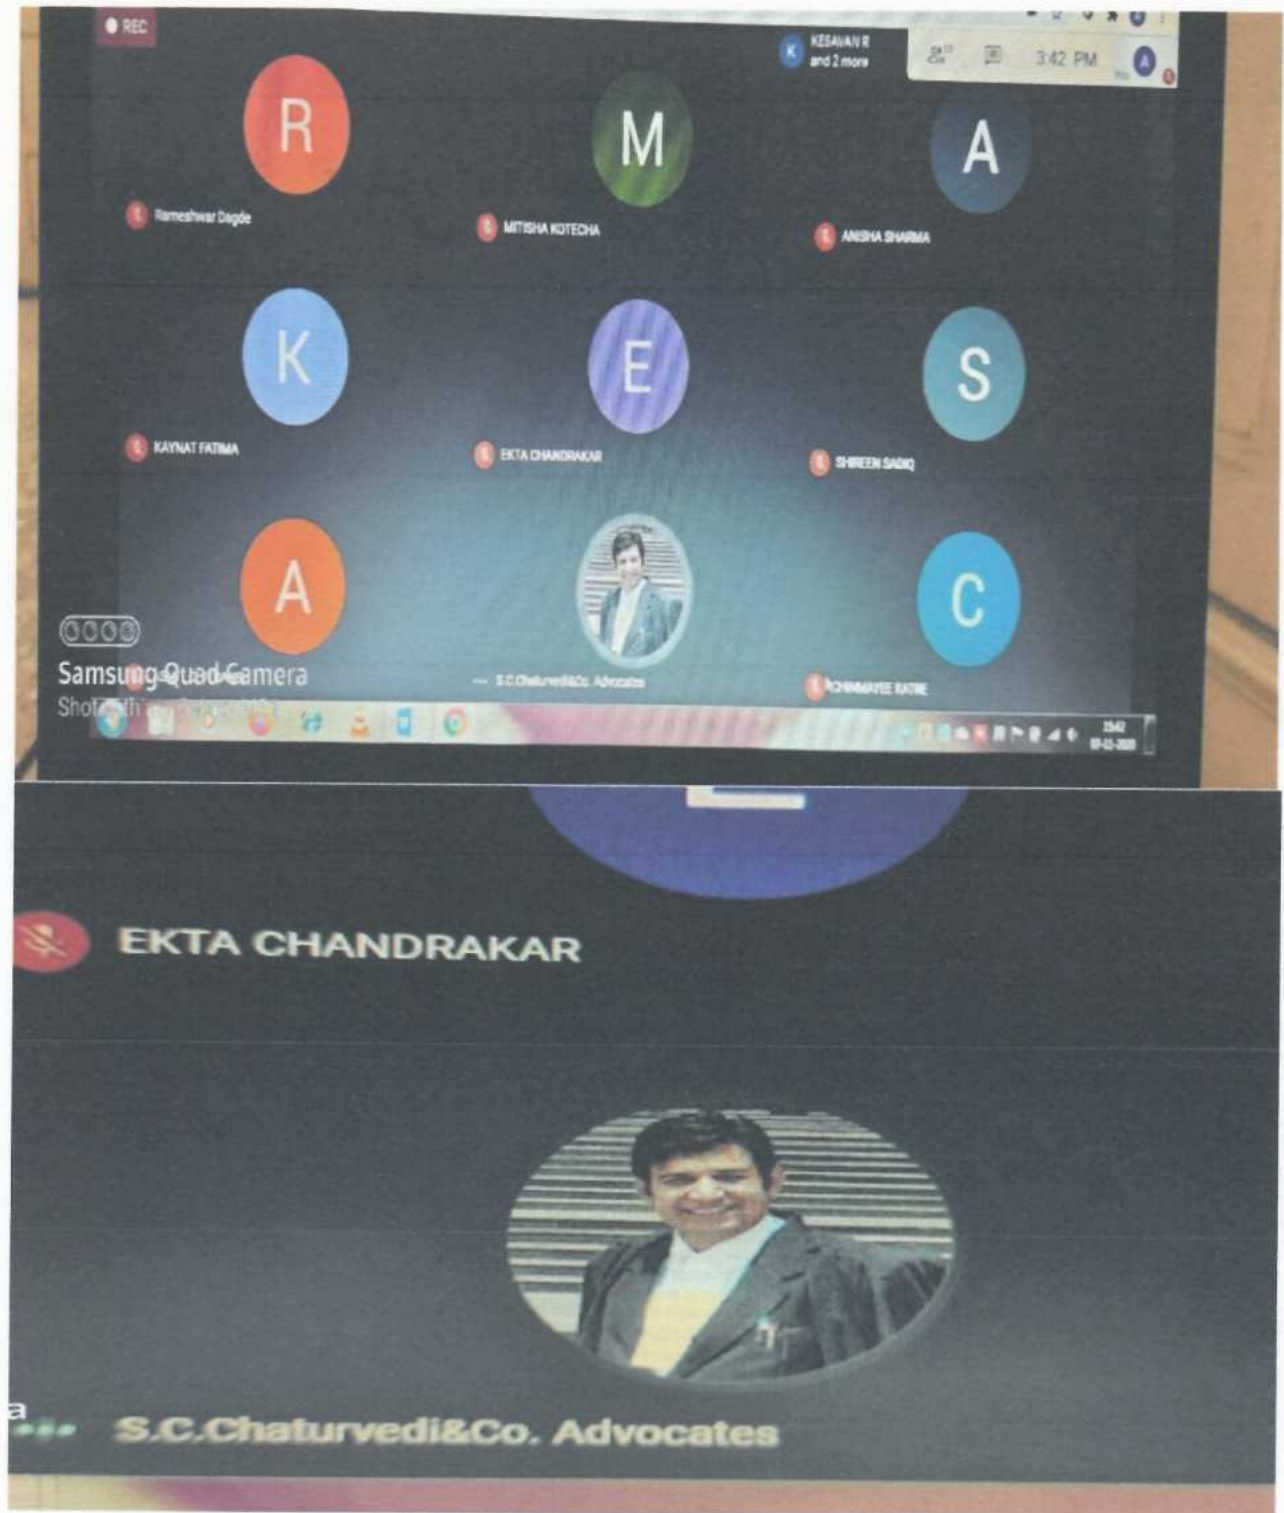

7th November, 2020

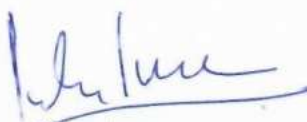

Symbiosis Law school Nagpur organised a webinar for LL. M students on 7th November 2020 from 3.30pm to 4.30pm. The theme was focused on "Human rights and Criminal Justice." The speaker for the session was Adv. Puneet Chaturvedi, proprietor of S C Chaturvedi & Co. Advocates and Consultants, Mumbai, Maharashtra.

The session began with the welcome address by the Director of Symbiosis Law School, Nagpur, Dr Sukhvinder Singh Dari while welcoming guest and the participants he briefly outlined the importance of preserving human rights in the prevailing justice system.

The Webinar started with the discussion on Vedic Principles and its relevance with special emphasis on the aspect of how living is different from mere existing as humans. The speaker went ahead to discuss how Constitution of India being one of the most cherished documents for the citizens of the nation. He remarked that we as citizens have brought down the value of the Constitution by not abiding by its most cherished principles. Adv Chaturvedi then connected the constitution and human rights and went on to deliberate the contribution made by the Supreme Court as sentinel of protection of rights. Taking help of landmark judgments he discussed the human side signified by Judges of the Apex Court and how human rights of victims and accused were protected in the process of criminal Justice administration. While ending the discuss the myriad array of rights were brought to students attention and they were ask to reflect on the various dimensions of the criminal justice system and its components as Police, Judiciary and Jail Authorities. The session ended with the question answer session and the Speaker completely satisfied the queries raised by the students. All the students appreciated the knowledge gained.

Dr. Aarti Mohan Kalnawat, faculty, SLS, Nagpur moderated the program and introduced the resource person, Vote of thanks was proposed by Ms. Anisha Sharma, a student of LLM, SLS Nagpur.

Director
Symbiosis Law School,
Nagpur