Logo Designing Competition

15/10/2020

A competition to design a logo for the Parliamentary Debate Society was organized by the Parliamentary Debate Society at Symbiosis Law School, Nagpur. The competition was announced on 15th October, 2020 via email to all the students of Symbiosis law school Nagpur. Students were required to submit it electronically. Only one entry per person was allowed.

There was a huge response to the competition. Only 33 entries were finally selected for the competition. For judging the competition, a selection committee of ad-hoc members was constituted. During the evaluation, the Selection Committee was impressed with the entries and found many Logos very engrossing. They were awed by the creativity of the minds that was reflected in these Logos. On the basis of the recommendations of the Selection Committee, of the Logo design contest Mr. TusharGarewal from third semester, BALLB (2019-2024 batch) has been announced as winner. The result was announced through mail on 21st October, 2020.

The event was organized and coordinated by Dr. DeeptiKhubalkar, In charge of the cell under the guidance of Dr. Sukhvindar Singh Dari, Director, SLS, Nagpur. For organizing the event all the members of parliamentary debate cell and staff worked hard.
