Report of Distinguished Lecture Series - Lecture 1 on
Constitutionalism and Constitutional Morality in Contemporary World

16th December, 2020

Symbiosis Law School, Nagpur launched the 'Distinguished Lecture Series' on the theme "Constitutional Law" on 16th December, 2020. The Lecture series is conceptualized by Research and Publication Cell and Website, PR & Media Cell of the institute. The inaugural lecture of the series was delivered by Prof. (Dr.) Dilip Ukey, Vice-Chancellor, Maharashtra National Law University, Mumbai on the topic 'Constitutionalism and Constitutional Morality in Contemporary World' on an online platform at 3 pm. Dr. Sukhvinder Singh Dari, Director, Symbiosis Law School, Nagpur welcomed the guest and stressed on the importance of constitutional morality and the need to critically engage with its contemporary relevance.

The speaker emphasized on the philosophical origins of constitutional morality and its evolution in the Indian context right from the constituent assembly debates through the various landmark judgments of the Supreme Court of India. Dr. Ukey also highlighted the dynamic nature of the Indian Constitution and its transformative character.

The session was moderated by Ms. Trupti Kokate, Faculty-in charge of Website, Media & PR Cell. The lecture was followed by a question answer session in which the speaker enthusiastically dealt with the questions raised by the attendees. The inaugural lecture was attended by the students and faculties from the institute and members of the general public. Vote of thanks was proposed by Ms. Trupti Kokate.
