REPORT

“INTERNAL MOOT COURT COMPETITION” ORGANIZED BY MOOT COURT ASSOCIATION

Date: 7th May, 2022

Moot Court Association of Symbiosis Law School, Nagpur organised the Internal Moot Court Competition for the first year BA/BBA LL.B. students of 2021-26 batch. The competition was held physically at SLS, Nagpur campus on 7th May, 2022. The competition received good response from the first year students. More than 60 students participated in the competition and spent more than 2 months researching and preparing their arguments which were to be presented before the Hon'ble judges. The participants argued in front of the judges, who questioned the participants on the moot proposition to get the best from them.

Each team and every student got an opportunity to learn, memorial drafting, preparing and strategizing oral arguments, courtroom mannerisms to be followed and practically applied in the competition.

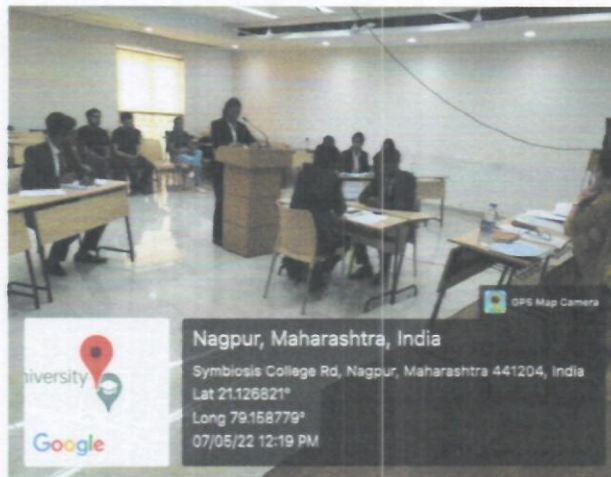

All the teams enthusiastically participated in the competition. The moot proposition consisted of topics relating to contractual law, IT Act, copyright infringement and various other topics. Participants presented creative arguments and their memorials in front of the judges. With this competition the students learnt the intricacies of a moot court competition and it also prepared them for the future competitions.
