Expanding Horizons of Right to Life and Personal Liberty under Article 21 of the Constitution of India

7th June, 2021

Symbiosis Law School, Nagpur had organized a Guest Lecture on 'Expanding Horizons of Right to Life & Personal Liberty under Article 21 of the Constitution of India' on 7th June, 2021 for the students of 2nd semester BA & BBA LL.B. The Lecture series was structured as a part of the course of Constitutional Law – I with the aim achieve a fine balance between practical approach and theoretical knowledge in understanding this field of law. Adv. Chetan Dhore, practicing lawyer before the Bombay High Court, Nagpur Bench was invited to deliver the guest lecture on an online platform. Dr. Shilpa Sharma, Assistant Professor, Symbiosis Law School, Nagpur welcomed the guest speaker. The lecture began at 3:30 pm on the online platform with the introduction of the guest. Adv. Dhore acquainted the students with the transition of interpretation of Article 21 of the Constitution of India by the Supreme Court in the pre-Maneka and post-Maneka era. He made the topic interesting by exhaustively and meticulously dealing with the variety of case laws which broadened the horizons of Right to Life and Personal Liberty.

The session was moderated by Ms. Sayalee Surjuse, Assistant Professor, Course In-charge & Faculty-in charge of Research and Publication Cell. The lecture was followed by a question answer session in which the speaker enthusiastically dealt with the questions raised by the students. The lecture was attended by the students and faculty members of the institution. Total number of participants were 100. Vote of Thanks was delivered by Ms. Nikitha Challa, student of 2nd semester BBALLB batch 2020.
