Constitutional Remedies for the Enforcement of Fundamental Rights

5th June, 2021

Symbiosis Law School, Nagpur had organized a Guest Lecture on 'Constitutional Remedies for the Enforcement of Fundamental Rights' on 5th June, 2021 for the students of 2nd semester BA & BBA LL.B. The Lecture series was structured as a part of the course of Constitutional Law – I with the aim achieve a fine balance between practical approach and theoretical knowledge in understanding this field of law. Adv. Shraddhanand Bhutada, practicing lawyer before the Bombay High Court, Nagpur Bench was invited to deliver the guest lecture on an online platform. Dr. Shilpa Sharma, Assistant Professor, Symbiosis Law School, Nagpur welcomed the guest speaker. The lecture began at 2 pm on the online platform with the introduction of the guest. Adv. Bhutada not only acquainted the students with the nuances of the Constitutional remedies for the vindication of Fundamental Rights but also briefly informed the students about the procedure followed by the Courts under its writ jurisdiction. He made the topic interesting by incorporating everyday experiences in the Court and referred to landmark case laws wherever necessary.

The session was moderated by Ms. Sayalee Surjuse, Assistant Professor, Course In-charge & Faculty-in charge of Research and Publication Cell. The lecture was followed by a question answer session in which the speaker enthusiastically dealt with the questions raised by the students. The lecture was attended by the students and faculty members of the institution. Total number of participants were 100. Vote of Thanks was delivered by Ms. Batchu Varshini, student of 2nd semester BBALLB batch 2020.
