5. PREPARATION OF MERIT LIST & ALLOTMENT OF SPECIALISATION FOR SLS, NAGPUR:

5.1 PROCESS OF PREPARATION OF FIRST MERIT LIST FOR SLS, NAGPUR:

Step 1: Preparation of consolidated/generic merit list:

A consolidated/generic¹ merit list will be prepared as per the AIAT score and total intake for open and other reserved categories.

Hypothetical Example: ² If there are total 10 seats for open category, the institute will add around 20% extra i.e. $10+02=12$ and prepare the consolidated/generic merit list of 12 candidates from the open category. These 12 candidates will be selected based upon their AIAT score irrespective of their preferred specialization.

Step 2: Allotment of the specialization to the candidates selected in consolidated/generic merit list:

The candidate, who is selected in the consolidated/generic merit list, will be allotted a particular specialisation depending on:

- (a) The marks scored in AIAT;
- (b) The preferences of specializations given by the candidate while filling out the registration form for AIAT.

Allocation of the specialisation will be based upon the cut-off marks of the concerned specialisation as determined from the merit list and the number of seats in each specialization. The total number of seats shall be equally divided among all the offered specialisation in a particular academic year.

Hypothetical Example:

In an academic year, 2 specializations* are offered by the institute. For first merit list the institute will select around 20% extra candidates. It means for first merit list, the institute will select 12 candidates (i.e. actual seat $10+ 02=12$) for open category. Same logic will be applied for other reserved categories.

* Note : The offering of a specialisation in a particular academic year will be subject to minimum 5 admissions in the concerned specialisation group.

¹ A consolidated/generic merit list will be based upon the actual score of AIAT irrespective of specialization selected by the candidate.

² Kindly note this example is not based upon the actual number of seats and specialization offered by the institution. This example is provided merely for the purpose of understanding the process and shall not be construed as a binding rule for the purpose of number of seats and specialization offered by the institution.

5.1.1 Process of allotment of specialization to the candidates selected in consolidated/generic merit list for SLS, Nagpur:

After the preparation of consolidated/generic merit list, the institute will start allotting the specialisation for each candidate from consolidated/generic merit list based upon their marks in AIAT and preferences selected by the candidates.

The Institute will start with first candidate.³ He/she will be given his/her first specialization. In this hypothetical example, the process will go on till the 5 seats for open category are filled for each specialisation. If a candidate has selected Business & Corporate Law as his/her first preference and 5 seats are filled in "Business & Corporate Law", the institute will allot his/her second preferred specialisation according to his/her marks in AIAT. The candidate will not be allotted his/her first specialization i.e. Business and Corporate Law because 5 seats allotted to Business and Corporate Law are exhausted. Same logic will be applied for other reserved categories.

Note: Subsequent to the allotment of specialisation, a specialisation-wise merit list would be published and offer letter will be sent to the merit listed candidates.

5.2 PROCESS OF PREPARATION OF SECOND MERIT LIST FOR SLS, NAGPUR:

After the last date for admission as per the first merit list, the institute will check the total admitted candidates and based upon seats available in each specialization, the following process will be followed:

A) Forfeiture and deemed forfeiture: If a candidate is offered first preference in first merit list but has not taken the admission:

The candidate who has not taken admission after offering his/her first preference of specialisation and refuses or does not take admission within stipulated period will forfeit his/her claim of admission. It means his/her candidature will not be considered for second and subsequent merit lists. No email or any communication for negotiating or requesting change in admission shall be admissible. It cannot be raised as a ground for holding the seat or right to admission.

Hypothetical Example: If Mr./Ms. "A" is offered his/her preference -1 in the first merit list, but he/she didn't take admission before deadline of the admission for first merit list and requested more information on change of specialisation, Mr./Ms.

³ First candidate for the purpose of merit list means person who has obtained highest marks in AIAT.

"A" will not be considered for second merit list. Since, Mr./Ms. "A" has not taken admission after offering his/her first preference given by him/her; he/she will forfeit his claim of admission in second and subsequent merit list.

B) If a candidate is offered first preference in first merit list or any subsequent merit list and has taken the admission:

If a candidate is offered admission in his/her first preference and taken admission, his/her name will not be wait-listed for second or subsequent merit list. It means his/her name will not be considered for second preference in second or subsequent merit lists.

C) If a candidate is offered second preference in the first merit list but he/she has not taken the admission:

If a candidate is offered admission in his/her second preference but he/she does not take the admission. The said candidate will be wait-listed and will be considered for second merit list subject to availability of seats in his/her first preferred specialization and merit. However, candidature of the said candidate will not be considered for second preference in second merit list or subsequent merit lists.

The following process will be followed for allotment of specialization:

If a candidate is allotted his/her second preference and has not taken the admission, he/she will be waitlisted and his/her candidature will be considered for first preference subject to vacancy of seats and merit. His/her candidature will not be considered for second preference.

D) If a candidate is offered second preference in the first merit list and has taken the admission at SLS, Nagpur:

If a candidate is offered his/her second preference in the first merit list and has taken admission. The said candidate will be given option to change the specialization.

Process of change of specialisation after taking admission at SLS, Nagpur:

- The admitted candidate may make an application within the stipulated time to change his/her specialisation.
- The application for change in specialization will be considered keeping in view:
 - a) the candidate's score in AIAT,
 - b) cut-off marks of the concerned specialization in subsequent merit list,
 - c) the number of vacant seats in the concerned specialisation.

E) If a candidate is offered first/second preference in first or any other merit list and has taken admission at SLS, Nagpur and cancelled the admission subsequently:

If a candidate has taken admission in any specialisation and cancelled the admission for whatever reason, the candidate will forfeit his/her claim of the admission in subsequent merit lists.
