REPORT ON “MOOT COURT DEMONSTRATION” ORGANISED BY MOOT COURT ASSOCIATION

The Moot Court Association of Symbiosis Law School, Nagpur organized “Moot Court Demonstration” for BA/BBA LL.B. batches of 2020-25 and 2021-26 via online and physical mode on 28th February 2022, in the Moot Court hall. Dr. Aditee Godbole and Prof. Ahmar Afaq were the esteemed judges for the demonstration. The petitioner’s team consisted of Ms. Sanjana Sapra, Ms. Gayatri Chanchani and Mr. Ritvik Dang and the respondent’s team consisted of Mr. Shaunak Deshpande, Ms. Anwita Bhattacharjee and Ms. Sayantani De. Both teams were well versed with their arguments as the teams had prior experience of participating in various Moot Court competitions.

The objective of the demonstration was to provide an insight of courtroom-mannerisms while presenting oral arguments in a moot court competition. Moreover, the judges also provided an insight on how the proceedings and questioning takes place. This was a valuable learning experience for the students who want to represent themselves in future moot court competitions.

The demonstration received an overwhelming participation and the students learnt a lot and gained a valuable insight regarding moot court competitions. The demonstration was concluded by a vote of thanks delivered by Dr. Aditee Godbole, assistant professor, faculty-in-charge, Moot Court Association, Symbiosis Law School, Nagpur.
