Report of Legal Awareness Program at Kharbi, Nagpur

December 30th, 2019

Symbiosis Law School, Nagpur has an active centre for Legal Aid with dedicated faculty in charge and 35 Member students. It is working and serving the people of the area. The students have been visiting nearby villages to understand the legal issues which people face and to provide advice.

With above objective, Legal Aid Centre at Symbiosis Law School, Nagpur conducted legal awareness program at Kharbi, Nagpur. People of the area were informed about the solid waste and its disposal, importance of segregation of waste for the purpose of recycling and plastic ban. Related provisions in law in vernacular language were discussed with the people.

Members of the centre informed the residents about the legal aid centre at SLS, Nagpur and purpose of formation of the centre. Residents of the area were also informed about the visiting time of the centre and availability of the concerned staff at the centre on week days. Students and members of the legal aid centre participated in the awareness drive with zeal and enthusiasm.
