The Placement Cell, Symbiosis Law School, Nagpur organized a Webinar on "The ESG Regulatory Framework in India" on 01st August, 2020. delivered by Ms. Bhakti Madan. Ms. Bhakti Madan is presently working as Associate, Cyril Amarchand Mangaldas.

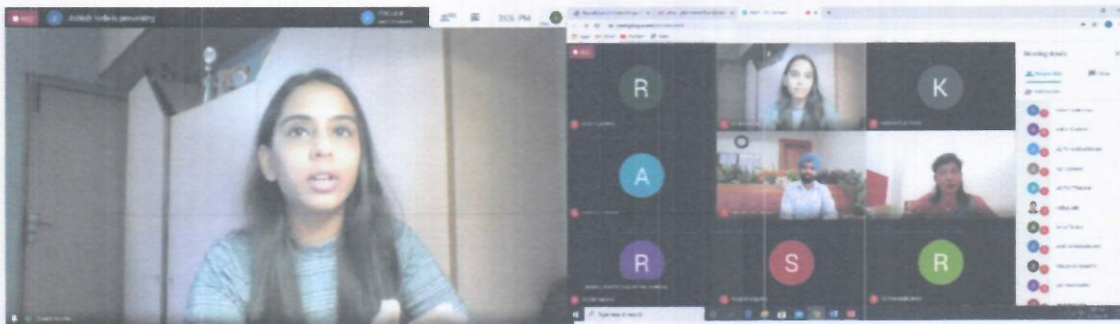

Ms. Bhakti Madan, Partner, Associate, Cyril Amarchand Mangaldas, was introduced by Prof. (Dr.) Shilpa Sharma, Faculty at Symbiosis Law School, Nagpur. The Welcome Address was given by Dr. Sukhvinder Singh Dari, Director – Symbiosis Law School, Nagpur. Ms. Bhakti Madan is practicing in the General Corporate team of the firm. She is involved in various commercial arrangements and technology-based start-ups, on evolving regulations and legal frameworks. She has specialized in EdTech advisory, transactions pertaining to mergers and acquisitions of schools and educational institutions, advisory on equity transactions (foreign and domestic) in educational institutions including FDI, structuring and advising leading educational institutes on fund-raising, and advising the trustees and board of schools and colleges across the country on criminal liability.

Ms. Bhakti Madan began with explaining the students about ESG - Environmental, Social and Governance. She further explained the ESG Standards. She also explained that ESG is "a generic term used in capital markets and used by investors to evaluate corporate behaviour and to determine the future financial performance of companies." It is used by investors to evaluate corporations and determine the future financial performance of companies. The current ESG trends in India were discussed as compared to existing global trends in developed and developing markets. A number of corporate instances were discussed. These instances were of special interest for the student audience and not only attracted attention but solicited a number of questions and queries. The Regulatory framework was then introduced and the NGRBC guidelines were discussed. This was followed by further discussion on the Corporate Governance Laws. The evolution of Corporate Governance Legislation in India was discussed in detail with a number of instances. The Companies Act, 2013 and the SEBI (LODR), 2015 regulations were discussed.

This session was followed by the Question & Answer session. The event was moderated by Prof. (Dr.) Shilpa Sharma and the Vote of thanks was proposed by Prof. Trupti Kokate, Faculty, Symbiosis Law School, Nagpur.

The seminar was attended by the students of SLS, Nagpur and many registered participants across the Nation.
