Three Days National Workshop

Symbiosis Law School, Nagpur strives for providing the best empirical practices to ensure utmost participation of the students thereby honing their professional and interpersonal skills. In continuation of the efforts in this direction, SLS, Nagpur organized three days National Workshop from 22nd to 24th March, 2021 on the topic,

“Beyond the Books: Basics of Professional Front”

The National Workshop was divided in three days with different topics with different Guest speakers. The first day of the Workshop was on the topic of “Importance of body Language – making a positive first impression for interviews” which was delivered by Dr. Apeksha Singh, Assistant Professor of English in department of English, Galgotias University, Greater Noida. Dr. Apeksha in a very coherent way explained the effectiveness of having a controlled body language as it is very important during Interviews to mark an impression. In her address, she expounded features of body language, significance of having eye contact during Interviews to the large number of participants.

The second day of the workshop enlightened the participants across the country on the topic of, “How to build a strong CV” addressed by Dr. Niteesh Kumar Upadhyay, research advisor at South Ural State University, Russia. In his spotless style, he grabbed the attention of participants by narrating his journey full of different jobs at different places. In the eminent manner, Dr. Niteesh engrossed students in comprehending the fine ethics and intricacies of CV building. In furtherance, he also shared list of various platforms where the students can search for upcoming events to participate, platforms for Internship and various scholarship available for Law students to enhance the CV, this indeed was fascinating juncture for the students.

On 24th March, the last day of the workshop, participants got a prospect to get interacted with Ms. Mrinalini Banerjee, Assistant Professor (Research) at Gujarat National Law University, Gandhinagar. She emphasized that use of Colloquial language is not appropriate while you write Statement of Purpose (SOP). In her indulgent articulated style, she mentioned the students seven important tips to be kept in mind while writing SOP. The imperative content required in the paras of SOP and LOR were also shared by Ms. Mrinalini.

In a nutshell the National workshop proved to be an excellent workshop for Law students across the country with a participation of more than 185 attendees.

The three days' workshop used to end with a question and answer session. The workshop received huge response and wonderful feedback. The three days National Workshop was conceptualized and executed by Dr. Deepti Khubalkar and Dr. Shilpa Sharma, Assistant Professor at Symbiosis Law, School, Nagpur.
