REPORT OF WEBINAR ON

“CROSS BORDER DISPLACEMENT vis-à-vis INTERNATIONAL LEGAL RECOGNITION”

05TH JUNE, 2021

SPEAKER: - Ms. MRUNALINI BANERJEE, Assistant Professor, Gujarat National Law University

Symbiosis Law School Nagpur, observed the World Environment Day by organizing a webinar on a very crucial topic of “Cross Border Displacement Vis-a-Vis International Legal Recognition” on 05th June, 2021 from 9.30 a.m. – 10.30 a.m.

The distinguished speaker for the webinar was Ms. MRUNALINI BANERJEE, Assistant Professor, Gujarat National Law University.

The moderator of the webinar Sachin Tripathi, introduced the guest speaker Ms. MRUNALINI BANERJEE and briefly laid the framework for the lecture by showing some excerpts from the award winning movie “Climate Refugees [2010].

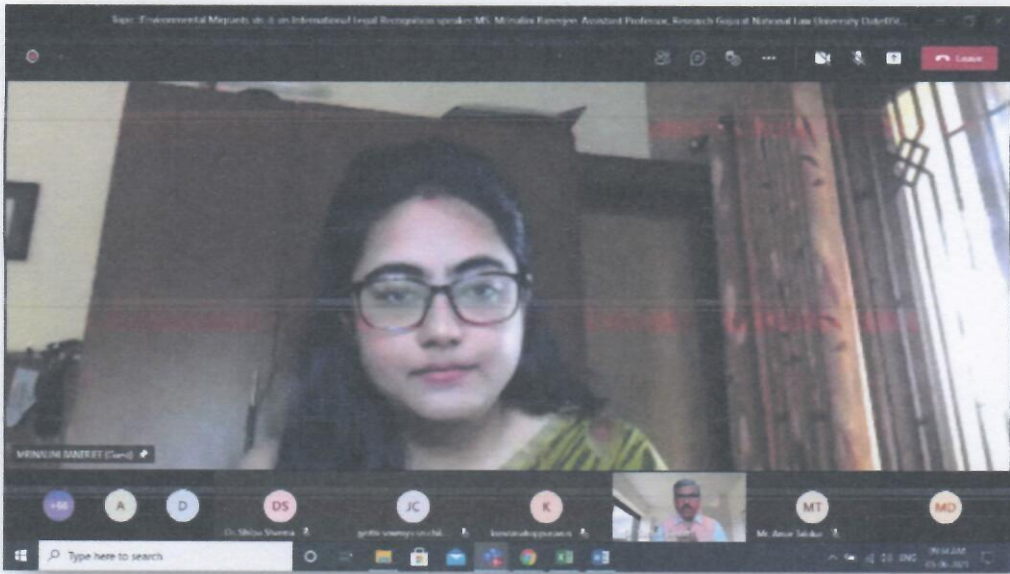

During his discourse, Ms. Banerjee crisply outlined the concept of Environmental Refuges and demonstrated the need for having a global framework for protecting the rights of such climate refugees. Her lecture was a judicious mixture of national and international perspective on legal recognition of climate refugees and illustrative examples based on empirical researches not only from India but from abroad as well.

Her lecture was very well received by the participants, which was reflected through the range of intriguing questions ranging from requirement of laws and policies on ecosystem restoration, issues and challenges relating to Paris Agreement, climate change regulation and policies and ultimately culminated into a very critical question on building a global political consensus on climate change regulation.

The webinar was equally graced by all the faculty member of the Symbiosis Law School, Nagpur and enthusiastically participated in the academic discussion.

The webinar ended up with an unequivocal admission that,

“We have only one earth. Let's preserve it.”

Ms. Mrinalini Banerjee addressing the participants.

The webinar ended up with a formal vote of thanks delivered by Dr. Shilpa Sharma, Assistant Professor, Symbiosis Law School, Nagpur.
