On

'Art & Craft of JUDGMENT WRITING'

8th June, 2021

Symbiosis Law school Nagpur organised a workshop on Judgment Writing, on 8th June 2021 from 3.30 pm onwards. Enduring the belief of bringing out the best in Students in terms of their holistic development, Dr. Sukhvinder Singh Dari, Director of Symbiosis Law School, Nagpur, in his Welcome Address highlighted the importance of Judgement in every case and role it plays for a legal practitioner. He registered his satisfaction for participation of students in such activities as an intrinsic part of their all-round training. While addressing, he stressed on the significance of understanding the technical aspects of Judgment Writing because as budding lawyers if they comprehend the crucial nuances of decision making, it will help the students in their professional development. He also thanked the participants for attending the workshop.

The Speaker of the session Adv. Chetan Dhore, Practicing Advocate at Bombay High court, Nagpur bench and an Independent litigator based in Nagpur shared some great insights to make the students understand the various facets of Judgement. The objective of this workshop was to introduce law students to the world of decision making from a legal, social and human perspective. When the students participate in various judgement writing competitions this workshop will better equip them to face the challenges offered. The aim was to bring in analysis of how Judges ponder over various dimensions of the case and arrive at conclusions. This will also help budding lawyers to understand the facet of judicial decision making which in turn sharpen their legal acumen. After a brief introduction, Adv Dhore step by step helped students to realise that as a promising lawyers, what challenges are awaiting for them in the legal field in context of convincing Judges on a point of facts and law. He demarcated the two basic bifurcation as civil and criminal side of practice and brought to the notice of potential lawyers who are more than hundred in number that they need to understand the technique of decision making and then develop their own reasoning's by observations from the pleadings, arguments and evidences offered in a case. All participants appreciated the Session.
