WORKSHOP ON PUBLICATION JOURNEY

6TH & 7TH AUGUST 2021

About Symbiosis Law School Nagpur –

Nagpur is the auxiliary capital of Maharashtra and a legal hub. It has been known to have produced legal luminaries like Supreme Court Judges and various High Court Judges. It also has a rich heritage of being home to many prominent lawyers of the country. Symbiosis Law School, Nagpur, which is a constituent of Symbiosis International (Deemed) University, Pune is driven by the exclusive motto to nurture and prosper this rich legacy of the Bar and Bench at Nagpur. It is committed to foster an environment of excellence in legal education and legal research. At the same time, SLS Nagpur endeavours to promote personal and intellectual growth of students thereby grooming them for becoming productive citizenry of the society

Concept Note –

Symbiosis Law School, Nagpur believes in the all-round development of the students. In line with purpose, it is not limited to imparting legal education but believes in providing various opportunities whereby the students will be able to explore their creative side, including legal research writing amongst other things. Writing research paper is an uphill task for the students, professionals and legal academia alike. To research and reduce the same in writing requires channelized guidance for, legal field being inherently dynamic with an evolving jurisprudence on almost every front, streamlining research becomes a challenge. In addition, lack of skill in doing research has contributed to the neglect of legal research ultimately having a detrimental impact on offering innovative solutions and on influencing the need for reforms in the legal arena.

For this reason hands-on-training is indispensable where legal scholars and researchers guide the students about the nuances of doing research and honing their writing skills at the same time. The workshop on 'Publication Journey' will cater to these needs of the students and help them understand the traits of legal research.

About the workshop –

The primary aim of the workshop is to provide students with insights on the research methods in this ever evolving field of law. The workshop is an initiative designed to raise understanding of growing issues relating to research with a focus on various research tools and methods. It will also deal with the basics of Doctrinal Legal Research and Empirical Legal Research. The workshop will acquaint the students with the importance of genuine research and thereby avoiding plagiarism. It will also inform them about the different citation styles in vogue and how to use them effectively in the research writing.
