AOR EXAM INSIGHTS: WORKSHOP ON LEGAL ACCREDITATION

23 September 2023

The Symbiosis Centre for Competitive Examinations (SCCE) meticulously orchestrated an enlightening discussion on the subject of “AOR Exam Insights: Workshop on Legal Accreditation.” This distinguished event was conducted on the 23rd of September 2023 in the Assembly Hall at Symbiosis Law School, Nagpur. The event commenced promptly at 09:30 AM. The central objective of this workshop was to shed comprehensive light on the pivotal facets that demand consideration when embarking on the arduous journey of AOR exam preparation. Its overarching aim was to methodically dissect each subject matter under examination and equip attendees with strategies for tackling the formidable question papers.

The resource person for this workshop was Adv. Namit Saxena, an illustrious Advocate on Record, whose accolades have resonated within the hallowed precincts of the Supreme Court of India. His esteemed presence graced the event, accompanied by the rich reservoir of knowledge he shared concerning the intricacies of AOR exam. The resource person was felicitated at the hands of Mr. Parth Sharma, Assistant Professor and Faculty In-charge, SCCE and R&P Cell at Symbiosis Law School, Nagpur. The welcome address was delivered by Ms. Sanika Jadhao, a dedicated student member of SCCE and R&P Cell, who eloquently introduced our distinguished guest speaker, highlighting his myriad achievements.

Adv. Saxena commenced the workshop by providing an overview of the AOR designation and the comprehensive contents that constitute the AOR exam. He expounded on the profound responsibilities and regulations incumbent upon Advocates on Record, offering insights into the practical realities of their profession within the Supreme Court. Further, he delved into an analysis of the previous year's AOR examination question paper, elucidating the multifaceted nature of the examination. It was elucidated that the AOR exam encompasses four distinct papers, namely Practice and Procedure, Drafting, Advocacy and Professional Ethics, and Leading Cases. A comprehensive discussion ensued, encompassing strategies for approaching various question types and delineating inclusions and exclusions.

The discussion proved to be profoundly educative, serving as intellectual nourishment for all those in attendance. The event reached its conclusion as Adv. Saxena graciously shared his professional experiences and insights, further enriching the audience's understanding.

The formal conclusion of the event was marked by an expression of deep gratitude. Mr. Preetraj Singh, Student In-charge of SCCE at SLS Nagpur, conveyed appreciation for the active engagement of all attendees with eloquence and grace.

This event, a tribute to intellectual curiosity, considerably expanded the horizons of all attendees, imparting profound insights into the intricate domain of AOR examinations. Under the able stewardship of our esteemed Director, Dr. Sukhvinder Singh Dari, the event's organization proved to be a resonating success, promising a valuable and enriching experience for all who were fortunate to be part of it.
