APRADH' – Documentary Screening

21st February, 2023

Symbiosis Centre for Criminology and Forensic Science hosted their inaugural event 'APRADH', a documentary screening on February 21st, 2023. The hour and twenty-two-minute long the documentary "American Murder: The Family Next Door" was selected to be screened. It narrates the story of Chris Watts, a man in his early 30s who brutally murdered his wife Shannan Watts, and their two daughters Bella and CeCe through the usage of videotapes and clippings. The event started at 3:15 and finished at 5:00. The introduction of the event was given by cell member Ritika kumari jha.

Nearly 60 students, excluding cell members, from the batches 2019–24, 2020–25, 2021-26, and LLM participated enthusiastically in the screening that was conducted in the assembly hall. The faculty member in charge, Ms. Himanshi Bhatia, also attended the documentary showing. The screening was carried out with the intention of assisting law students in identifying and exploring the field of criminal justice as well as assisting them in comprehending the mind of the offender. Particularly in this instance, there was a significant public outcry, which sparked a number of theories and analyses about the perpetrator's mental state and motivations. The documentary also helped explore more into the American legal system which helps the students draw a comparison to the Indian system and thus expand their knowledge. The documentary which ran for an hour and twenty-two minutes, despite its run time captured the students' attention

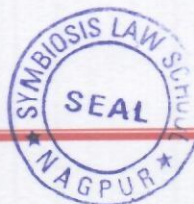

After the screening, the floor was open to the attendees to share their thoughts and opinions on the documentary and give their insightful feedback. Students shared their feedback about the event with the cell members and the faculty in charge, after which their attendance was taken. The audience was thanked for attending and informed of additional forthcoming events hosted by center's student-in-charge and vice president Rishi raj sharma
