"It does not matter how slowly you go as long as you do not stop." - Confucius

The Rotaract club of Symbiosis Law School, Nagpur graciously accepted an invitation to visit the Home for Aged and Handicapped in Unthkana, Nagpur. This special visit was in honor of the centre's 134th foundation day event, scheduled for February 8th, 2024.

Leaving in the afternoon around 4:00 pm, the delegation of Dr. Prashant Dhage Faculty in charge of Rotaract Club of Symbiosis Law School, Nagpur along with members of the club Aadit Saharya (PRN 21010422123), division 'C' Batch (2021-26), Neha Mariya (PRN 21010421011), division 'A' Batch (2021-26), and Avantika Barik (PRN 22010422084) division 'D' Batch (2022-27) made this visit. The dedicated staff at the centre warmly welcomed and they were immediately treated to an amazing performance by the talented children from the disability care centre. It was truly mesmerizing to see the children showcase their skills and talents.

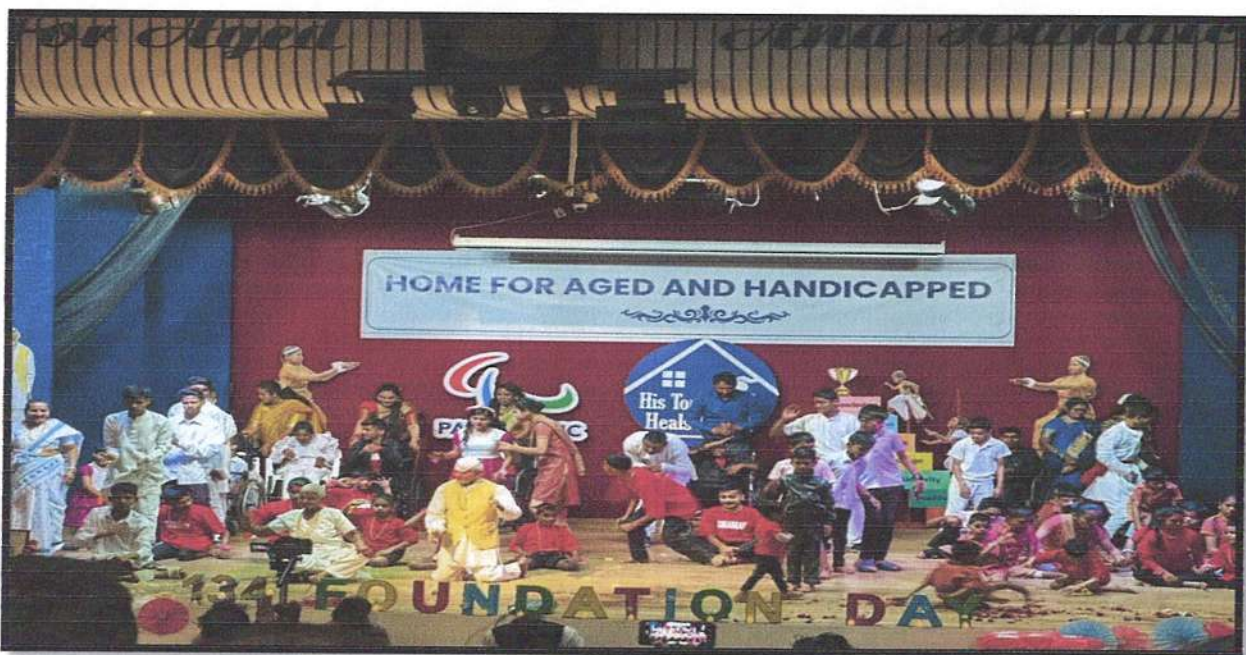

Afterwards, the delegation was guided to the auditorium where the main event was held. The atmosphere was filled with joy as the children and their peers presented a beautiful welcome dance. It was heartwarming to witness the camaraderie and unity among them.

The event continued with the introduction of distinguished guests and a series of artistic performances. One performance that particularly stood out was the motivation dance. It was a touching moment as children, elderly members, and the staff joined together, showcasing their extraordinary talents and leaving everyone amazed.

Additionally, the team had the chance to interact with staff members at the disability care center in order to investigate Learn about the difficulties that people with disabilities encounter and the methods the center uses to improve their independence, quality of life, and community inclusion. generate connections with the center's employees, caregivers, residents, and other stakeholders to build rapport, exchange ideas, and possibly even generate business contacts for potential future cooperation or support. Finding more about their experiences and witnessing the amazing work they do to help and look after the people at the center was a privilege.

The hospitality extended by the centre left a lasting impression on the delegation. Before bidding farewell, everyone was graciously invited to enjoy some refreshments, creating a warm and inclusive atmosphere. As they made their way back to Symbiosis Law School, the delegation couldn't help but feel immense joy and gratitude for the captivating performances and the incredible efforts of the Home for Aged and Handicapped, Unthkana, Nagpur.

This visit provided a deeper understanding of the work done at the disability care centre and the meaningful impact it has on the lives of the individuals they serve. It served as a reminder of the importance of inclusivity, compassion, and the power of community. I sincere gratitude for the inspiration and unwavering support our esteemed Director Dr. Sukhvinder Singh Dari provided me with to undertake this visit for the social outreach.
