Report on Devils' Court: Turncoat Competition at Symbiosis Law School, Nagpur

February 3, 2024

The Symbiosis Centre for Advocacy Skills and Litigation at Symbiosis Law School Nagpur successfully organized the "Devils' Court: Turncoat Competition" on February 3, 2024. This event, aimed at fostering and encouraging debating skills among the fresher students, witnessed enthusiastic participation from a total of 54 teams. The competition provided a platform for the participating students to engage in meaningful debates on various legal issues including euthanasia, presumption of innocence and guilt, vicarious liability, and sports law. These topics were carefully chosen to challenge the participants and stimulate critical thinking on contemporary legal matters. Total five court rooms were created with ten judges.

Under the supervision and guidance of Dr. Deepti Khubalkar, the event unfolded seamlessly. Dr. Sukhvinder Singh Dari, Director of Symbiosis Law School, Nagpur, extended his support and encouragement to the participating students to showcase their best debating skills. The organizing team worked tirelessly to ensure the success of the Devils' Court competition. Ms. Fareeha Firoz Badar is declared best speaker and Milind Anand and Sanjosh Singh as runner ups.

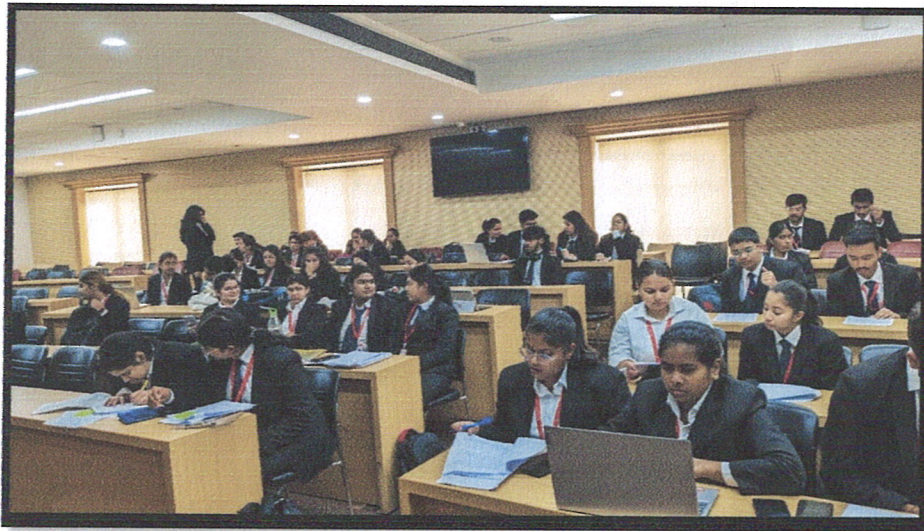

The competition not only provided a platform for students to showcase their debating prowess but also served as an opportunity for them to enhance their knowledge and understanding of diverse legal issues. It fostered a spirit of healthy competition and intellectual exchange among the participants, promoting a culture of robust legal discourse within the academic community.
