The Attorney's Cup

16th and 17th March, 2024

The Student Council (2023-24) of Symbiosis Law School, Nagpur in association with the Sports Cell and Department of Sports Recreation & Wellness organized Attorney's Cup 2024 Men's & Women's Division an Intra Institute Cricket Tournament on 16th and 17th of March, 2024.

Cricket is a sport that has captured the hearts of millions around the world, known for its rich history, strategic gameplay, and passionate fan following. Cricket has become a global passion that unites people across continents; whether played on the dusty streets of a small village or the grand stadiums of cricketing nations, the sport continues to enchant and inspire generations of fans worldwide. "Both Cricket and the Law demand focus, precision, and a keen eye for detail - one wrong move can make the difference between victory and defeat."

The SIU Multipurpose Hall hosted the pulsating action of the Attorney's Cup 2024 cricket tournament, where formidable teams battled it out for glory. With intense competition and electrifying matches, the tournament displayed the finest talents in the cricketing arena. The tournament featured six men's teams, divided into two pools. Each team fought fiercely in the round-robin stage to secure their position. The top two teams from each pool advanced to the semifinals, setting the stage for exhilarating knockout clashes. The semifinals saw Pool A's top team facing off against Pool B's second-placed team and vice versa, intensifying the competition and raising the stakes. The climax of the tournament unfolded in a captivating final showdown between Corporate Super Kings and Criminal Defenders, culminating in a moment of glory for the former.

Amongst the fierce contenders, Corporate Super Kings, led by the dynamic Shoaib Ali, emerged the coveted title in a thrilling finale against Criminal Defenders. Furthermore, Ananth Shukla's exceptional performances earned him the prestigious title of the best player and the best batsman of the tournament and Ritesh Anjana due to his excellence in bowling was awarded with the best bowler of the tournament.

In the dynamic setting of the Turf, the Attorney's Cup 2024 Tournament unfolded with exhilarating action and fierce competition among four formidable women's teams. Through a knockout format, teams battled for supremacy on the court, showcasing their skills and determination in pursuit of glory. In an electrifying final showdown, Barrister Belles, under the leadership of Karishma Modhsaraf, emerged victorious against Emerald Eagles, capturing the prestigious title of the Attorney's Cup 2024. Additionally, Vanshika Agarwal's exceptional performances earned her the distinction of being named the best player and the best batsman of the tournament and Madhura Kulkarni emerged as the best bowler of the tournament, further adding to the excitement and prestige of the event.
