

REPORT ON
WORKSHOP ON JUSTICE QUEST: JUVENILE EDITION

27/10/23

Symbiosis Law School , Nagpur in its practice of inculcating knowledge in the field of law by organizing various competitions and workshops has organized JUSTICE QUEST :JUVENILE EDITION by its student run cell Symbiosis Advocacy And Research Centre For Women And Children Rights on 27/10/2023 at 10:00 AM in the Moot Court Hall .

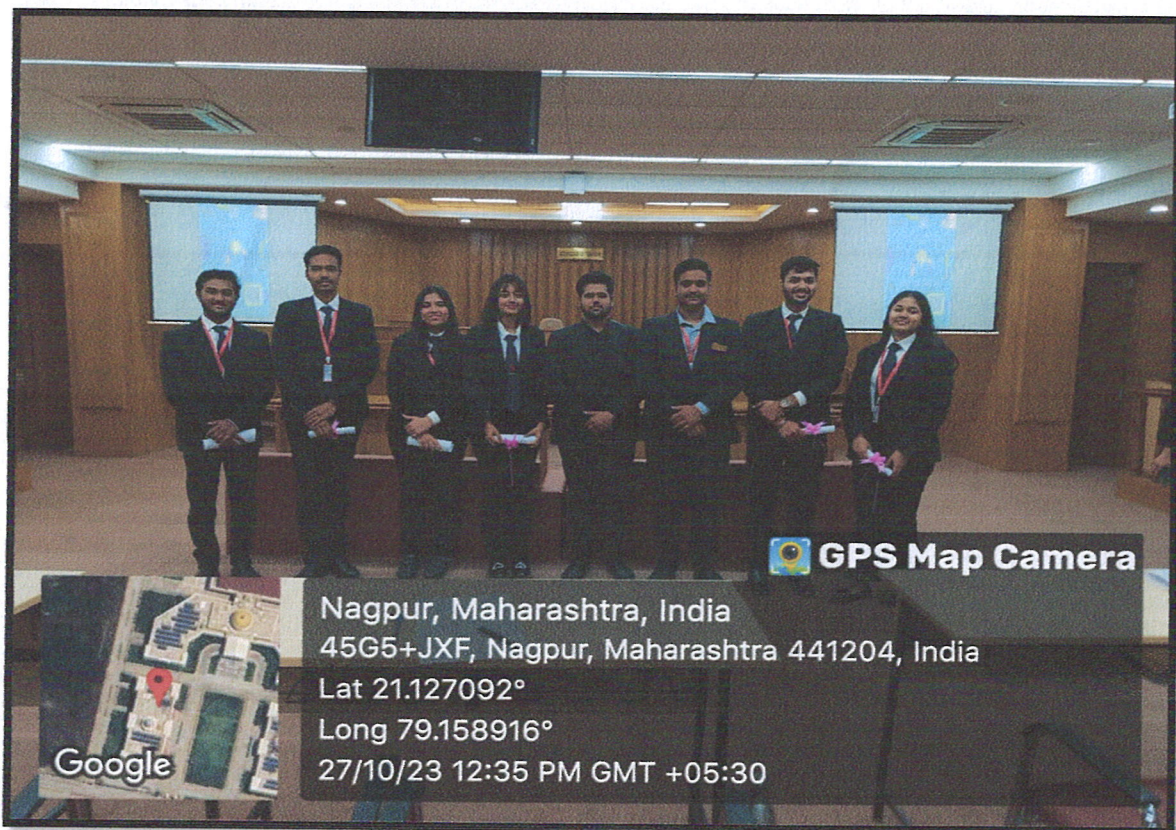

The event was based on a quiz competition on Juvenile Justice and its prospects, and it embarked in the students a vision and perspective of basic skills. The competition was open for the first- year students only and gained a participation of 13 Teams with 2 members in each team respectively. The top 3 teams were awarded with an internship letter from "MY STORY TRUST"- New Delhi, under which they were warranted a service internship for a period of 1 Month i.e., the winter internship for December 2023.

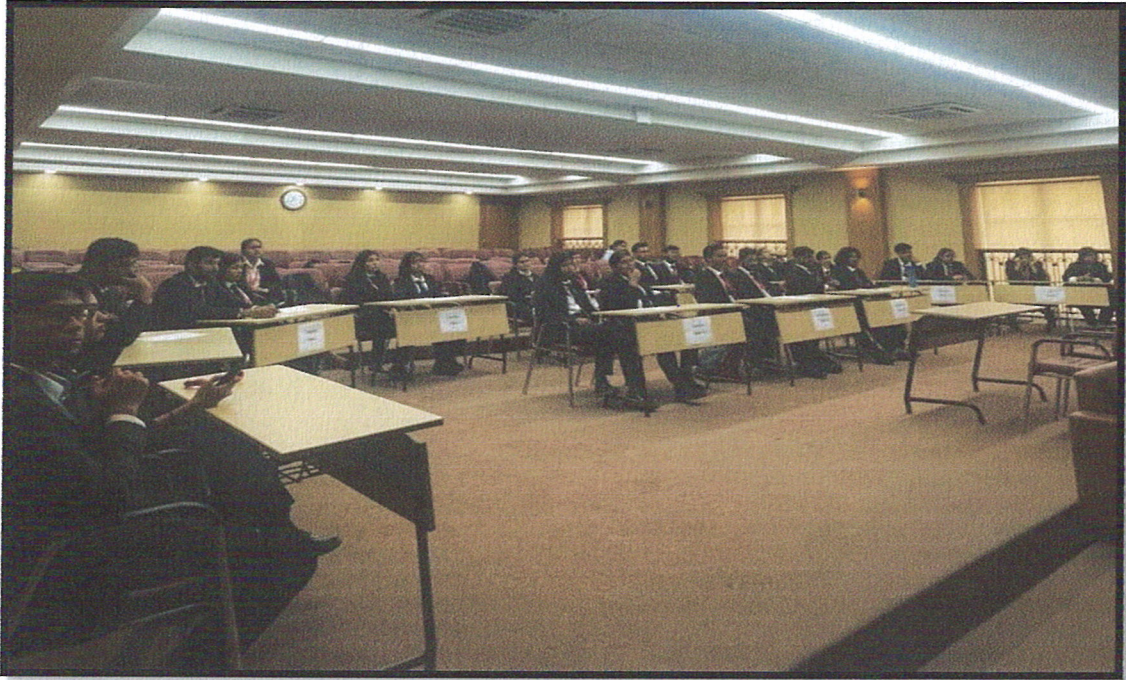

The Competition inculcated specialized understanding of a subject amongst the students. It was a learning-based competition which involved an element of fun and exuberance, through which the students developed a learning attitude without any pressure of excellence. It was aimed at boosting the confidence within the students who are in their initial years of learning and the aim was successfully achieved through the embarkment of the event primarily.

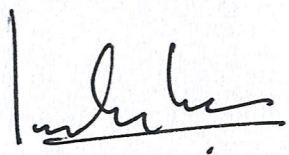

The competition posed various configurations of challenges amongst the students to help them reach their potential at their best. It also inculcated a sense of competitive-learning within the students which is an essential aspect, particularly in a law school packed with thousands of students.

The entire event was filled with enthusiasm and it achieved its primary and secondary objectives with ease, leaving in the students a sense of competitive yet cooperative learning, exuberance and better understanding of the subject coupled with a career-oriented reward.

The students showed profound interest and participation throughout the competition. The workshop was highly interactive and effectively achieved its agenda. The role of the 'quiz- master' was successfully dispensed by Mr. Prateek Singh. Overall, the event was highly successful and productive. Symbiosis Law School, Nagpur looks forward to organizing more such events in the future in furtherance of holistic development of its students.

Director
Symbiosis Law School,
Nagpur