26 February 2024

Taking forward its legacy of Internationalization Symbiosis Law School, Nagpur organized a workshop on millennium fellowship. Dr. Charvi Kumar, Assistant Professor at SLS Nagpur, delivered a comprehensive presentation on the nuances of the Millennium Fellowship. The event aimed to enlighten students from various batches, about the opportunities and experiences associated with the fellowship. Dr. Charvi Kumar also provided valuable insights into successful projects undertaken by Millennium Fellows from SLS Noida. Dr. Charvi Kumar began by giving a detailed overview of the Millennium Fellowship, explaining its mission, goals, and the significance of being part of such a prestigious initiative. She emphasized the program's commitment to empowering young leaders and fostering positive social change. She also elucidated the application process and criteria for the Millennium Fellowship, guiding students through the steps involved in submitting a successful application. This included discussing the essential elements of a compelling project proposal as well as she also shared inspiring stories and achievements of previous Millennium Fellows from SLS Noida. By highlighting these success stories, she aimed to motivate and encourage students at SLS Nagpur to envision impactful projects. The presentation delved into the creative and strategic aspects of developing a successful Millennium Fellowship project. Dr. Charvi Kumar encouraged students to think innovatively, offering guidance on identifying social issues, formulating project objectives, and designing sustainable solutions. Following the presentation, a lively question-and-answer session took place. Students had the opportunity to seek clarification on various aspects of the Millennium Fellowship, project development, and the application process.

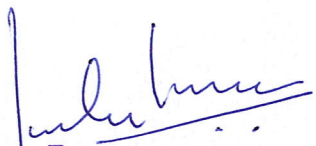

Dr. Charvi Kumar's presentation on the Millennium Fellowship was instrumental in providing students at SLS Nagpur with the knowledge and motivation needed to consider and pursue this remarkable opportunity. The session was not only informative but also inspiring, encouraging students to think beyond the classroom and actively contribute to positive social change.
