National Workshop

On

'Allied Criminal Laws'

21st August, 2021

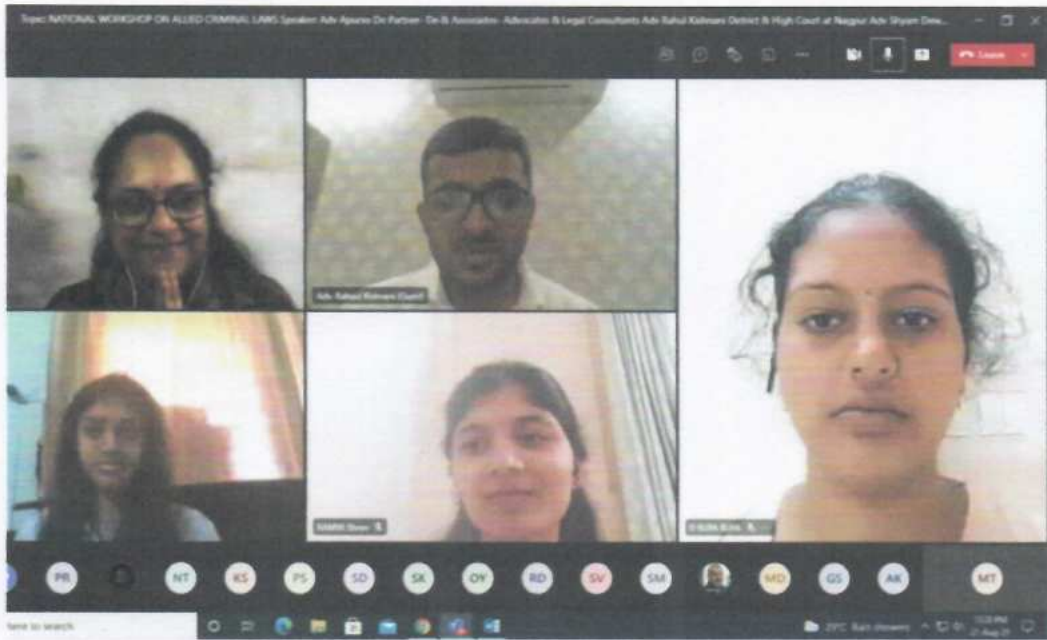

Symbiosis Law school Nagpur organised a Workshop on 'Allied Criminal Laws', on 21st August 2021 from 9.30 am onwards. Apart from extra-curricular events, focus on the syllabus based activities is one of the celebrated forte of SLS, Nagpur. As it is equally true that not all legislations are part and parcel of the five-year law journey, the students need to abreast themselves with those upcoming challenges which are waiting for them in the practical world. That's why the Student Support Centre of SLS, Nagpur organized one-day workshop, on other associated criminal laws. Dr. Sukhvinder Singh Dari, Director of Symbiosis Law School, Nagpur, in his Welcome Address welcomed the guests and emphasized on knowing the nuances of other laws as part of their academic development. He conveyed that workshop like this will definitely add an advantage to students' in their intellectual grooming. He also thanked the participants for attending the workshop.

The facilitators of the workshop were Adv Apurva De, Partner- De & Associates- Advocates & Legal Consultants, who reflected on Protection of Children from Sexual Offences Act, 2012 in the very first session of the day and Adv Rahul Kishnani, Practicing Advocate at District & High Court at Nagpu, conducted the sessions on Prevention of Corruption Act, 1988, in the second session respectively. Both the speakers put the analysis of respective legislations and elaborately explained the different tones involved in it. Generally, a student gives importance to syllabus based law and its understanding. The objective of this workshop was to introduce law students to the world of various other criminal laws and legal regulations which are subject of criminal trials. The aim is to unfold other associated laws which are not part of curriculum and make a value addition in students' knowledge banks. The workshop stirred various avenues which helped students to understand how they can better manage these cases, while dealing with practically faced situations. The landmark judgement of the Apex court was also deliberated in the sessions. All participants appreciated the workshop.

Dr. Aarti Mohan Kalnawat, faculty, SLS, Nagpur Moderated the session, Ms, Anushka Karlekar & Ms Ramya Sree, introduced the concept of session and resource persons, Vote of thanks was proposed by Mr Mehul Goenka, Member Student Support Centre SLS, Nagpur.
