Symbiosis Law School, Nagpur Organized International Lecture Series

Symbiosis Law School, Nagpur organized a Guest Lecture of Ms. Dulki Seethawaka, Attorney-at-law of the Supreme Court of India on the topic “Voicing for the Voiceless: Animal Protection in the Legal Regime” on January 07, 2022 as a part of International Lecture Series.

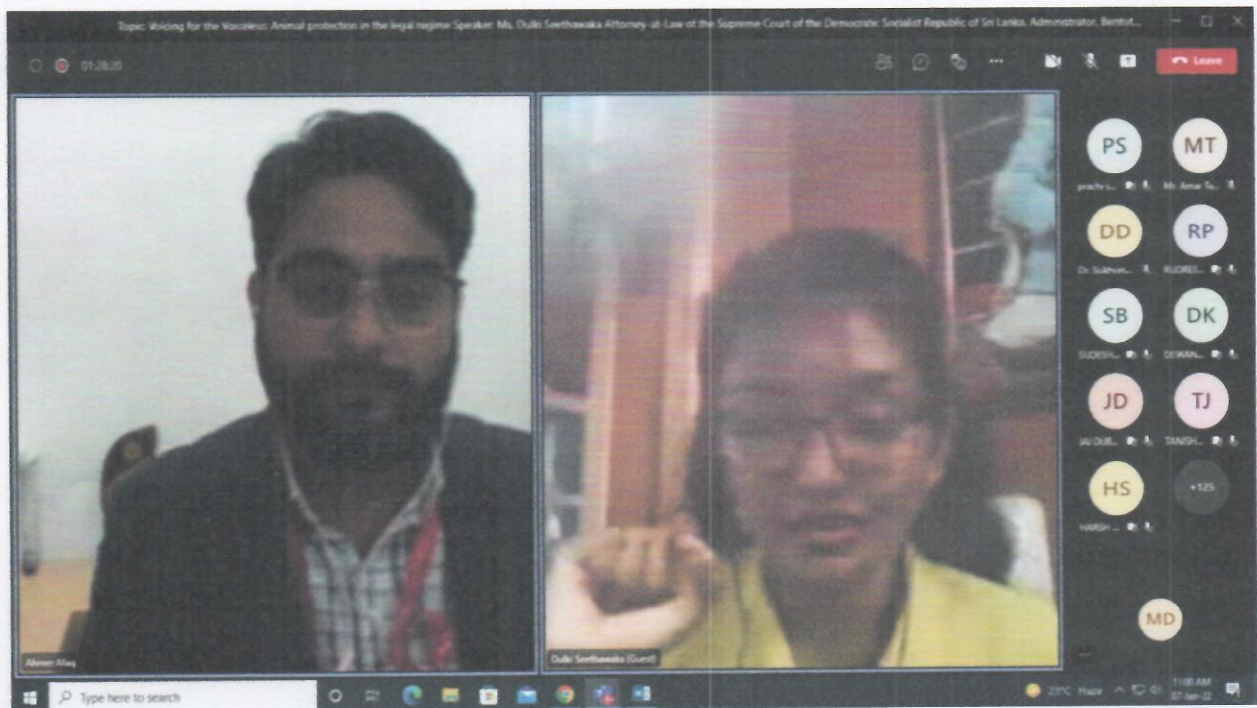

Dr. Sukhvinder Singh Dari, Director of SLS, Nagpur welcomed the Guest and thanked Ms. Seethawaka for considering our invitation and agreeing to deliver a lecture on the one of the most emerging area of discussion. Prof. Ahmar Afaq, Assistant Professor at SLS, Nagpur introduced the Speaker and moderated the session.

Ms. Seethawaka raised her concerns pertaining to the need for more and more discussions relating to the animal rights. She highlighted the fact that being voiceless they need our voices so that we can create a better place for them. She compared the legal regimes of both India and Sri Lanka and after explaining both of them she also touched upon the loopholes which exist in them. She argued that we need to have a comprehensive understanding of all what is required to be done and on the basis of it we must go forward with the development of policies pertaining to the animals.

The Session proved to be an excellent learning platform for Law students across the country with a participation of more than 100+ attendees. The session was followed by the very exhilarating and captivating Question & Answer session.

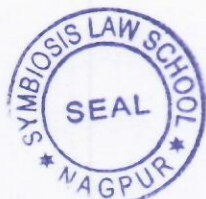

Dr. Sukhvinder Singh Dari, Director of SLS, Nagpur welcomed the Guest

Ms. Seethwaka while addressing the students.
