Three Days National Workshop

Symbiosis Law School, Nagpur strives for providing the best empirical practices to ensure utmost participation of the students thereby honing their professional and interpersonal skills. In continuation of the efforts in this direction, SLS, Nagpur organized three days National Workshop from 22nd to 24th March, 2021 on the topic,

“Beyond the Books: Basics of Professional Front”

The National Workshop was divided in three days with different topics with different Guest speakers. The first day of the Workshop was on the topic of “Importance of body Language – making a positive first impression for interviews” which was delivered by Dr. Apeksha Singh, Assistant Professor of English in department of English, Galgotias University, Greater Noida. Dr. Apeksha in a very coherent way explained the effectiveness of having a controlled body language as it is very important during Interviews to mark an impression. In her address, she expounded features of body language, significance of having eye contact during Interviews to the large number of participants.

The second day of the workshop enlightened the participants across the country on the topic of, “How to build a strong CV” addressed by Dr. Niteesh Kumar Upadhyay, research advisor at South Ural State University, Russia. In his spotless style, he grabbed the attention of participants by narrating his journey full of different jobs at different places. In the eminent manner, Dr. Niteesh engrossed students in comprehending the fine ethics and intricacies of CV building. In furtherance, he also shared list of various platforms where the students can search for upcoming events to participate, platforms for Internship and various scholarship available for Law students to enhance the CV, this indeed was fascinating juncture for the students.

On 24th March, the last day of the workshop, participants got a prospect to get interacted with Ms. Mrinalini Banerjee, Assistant Professor (Research) at Gujarat National Law University, Gandhinagar. She emphasized that use of Colloquial language is not appropriate while you write Statement of Purpose (SOP). In her indulgent articulated style, she mentioned the students seven important tips to be kept in mind while writing SOP. The imperative content required in the paras of SOP and LOR were also shared by Ms. Mrinalini.

In a nutshell the National workshop proved to be an excellent workshop for Law students across the country with a participation of more than 185 attendees.

The three days' workshop used to end with a question and answer session. The workshop received huge response and wonderful feedback. The three days National Workshop was conceptualized and executed by Dr. Deepti Khubalkar and Dr. Shilpa Sharma, Assistant Professor at Symbiosis Law, School, Nagpur. The event was a success due to the able visionary leadership of Dr. Sukhvinder Singh Dari, Director, Symbiosis Law School, Nagpur.

Webinar on Debating Skills

Topic

"Grinding the debating edges: A dialogue"

23rd January, 2021

Symbiosis Law school Nagpur organised webinar on Debating Skills on 23rd January 2021 from 10.00am to 11.00am. The theme was titled "Grinding the debating edges: A dialogue". The speaker for the session was Adv. Sumedh Kadam, practicing Advocate at Bombay High Court, Nagpur Bench.

The Webinar started with the Welcome address by Dr. Sukhvinder Singh Dari, Director of Symbiosis Law School, Nagpur. While addressing, he stressed that only having command over the language is not sufficient, articulation of ideas by apt use of words & right technique is equally indispensable for a skilled lawyer. Hence this webinar will help the students to hone right techniques in this direction. He also thanked the participants for attending the workshop.

The webinar was stirred by means of a dialogue between Adv. Sumedh Kadam, and Student of Symbiosis Law School, Ms Anisha Sharma, where both of them shared some insightful techniques for making debate presentations better. The discussion revolved around how to make the introductory statements, the content in the script, the need for research and importance of impactful conclusions. They also highlighted the nuances involved in Parliamentary form of debates. Covering the other aspects like stage fear, body language, presentation techniques and rebuttals, the webinar overall value added to the finer aspects of debating skills to 116 student participants. All the students were pleased with the extended comprehension.

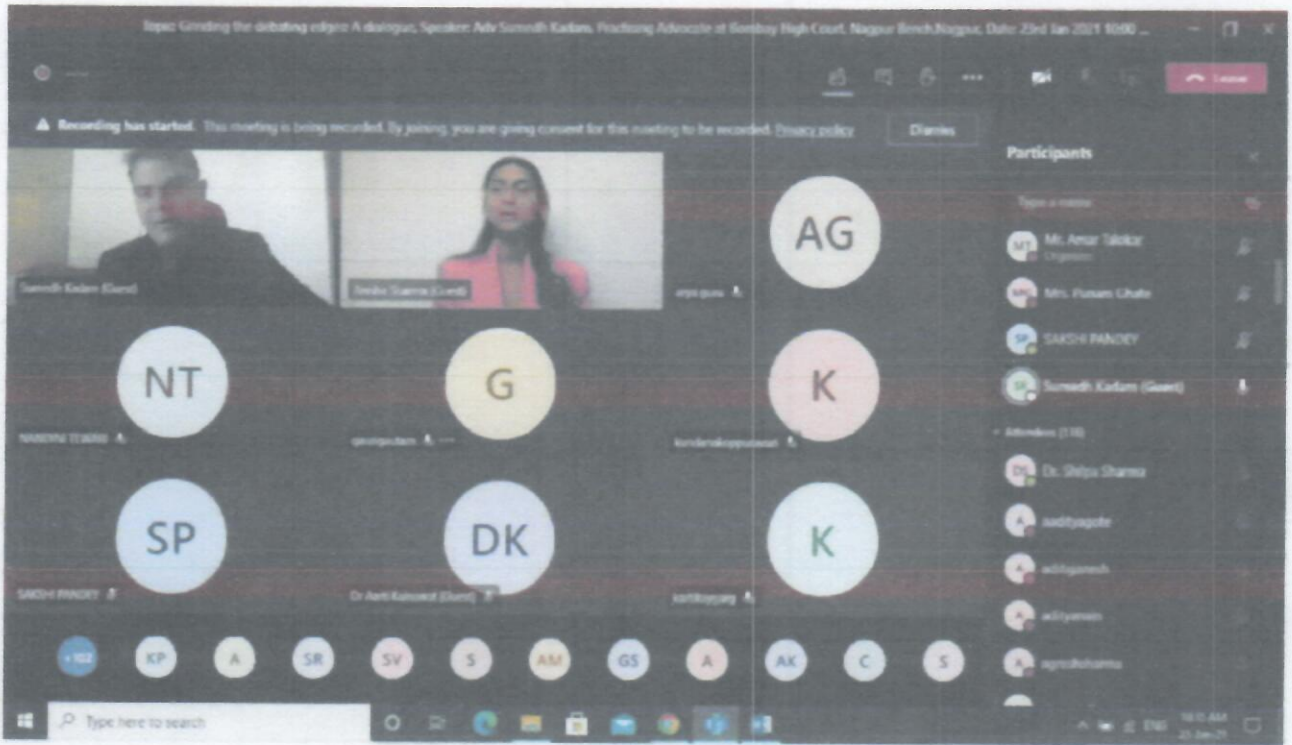

This webinar was conducted under the aegis of Student Support Centre of SLS, Nagpur. Dr. Aarti Mohan Kalnawat, faculty in-charge of SSC, Nagpur coordinated the program. Ms. Sakshi Pandey moderated the program and Ms. Anushka Karlekar proposed formal vote of thanks on behalf of SLS Nagpur.

Webinar on “Importance of Public Speaking Skills for Law Students”

December 22, 2020

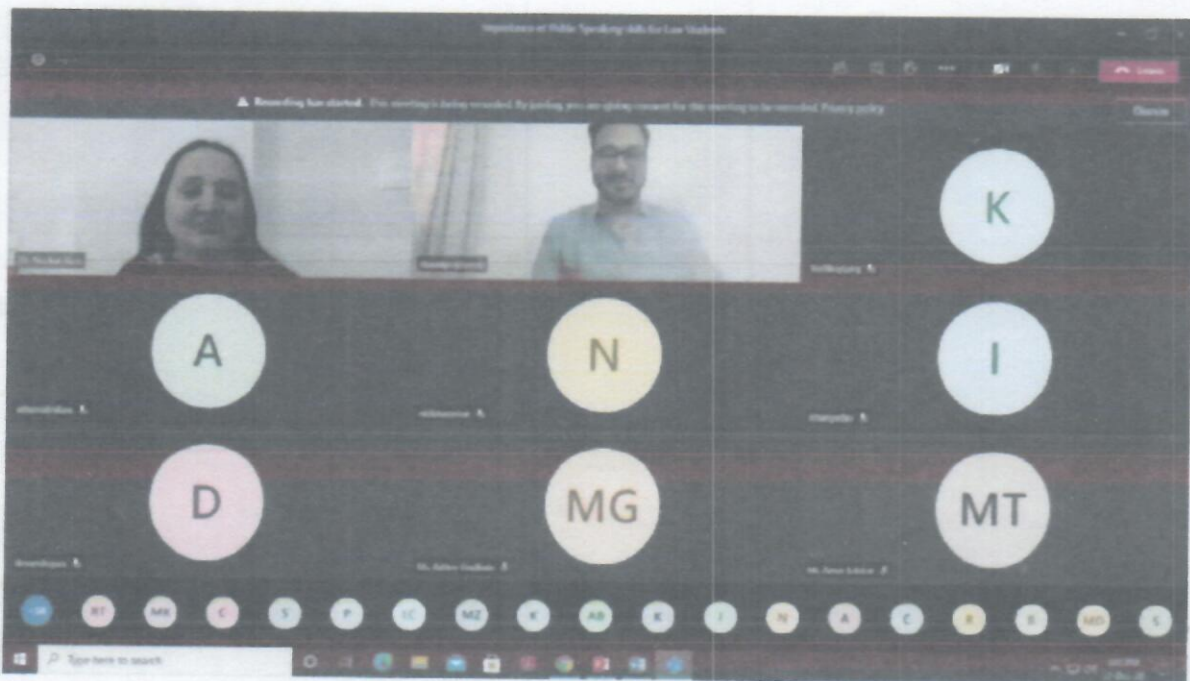

In continuation of its mission to promote and facilitate soft skill development of the students, a webinar was arranged on the virtual platform by the Debate and Literary Cell, Symbiosis Law School Nagpur on December 22, 2020. The Topic of the Webinar was “Importance of Public Speaking Skills for Law Students”

Mr. Koutilya Chhajer, an eminent soft skill trainer, counsellor and life coach was invited to address the students. Mr. Koutilya Chhajer, is the founder of Divine Healing Counselling and Healing Centre since 2010. He has been involved in training, counselling and consulting for more than 15 years. He is associated with many companies and educational institutions for counselling and training and has delivered a variety of Management and Professional development workshops. Dr. Nuzhat Rizvi welcomed Mr. Koutilya Chhajer, on behalf of Symbiosis Law School, Nagpur

During his extremely interesting interactive session, Mr. Chhajer emphasized on the importance of Public speaking skills. He delivered an enriching and entertaining lecture which was hugely appreciated by staff and students. The students actively participated in the activities during the session. They realized the importance of effective speaking skills for a successful career. The lecture was followed by an interesting and interactive Question-Answer session. The Guest speaker appreciated the enthusiasm and interest of the students.

The webinar was organized under the guidance of Dr. Sukhvinder Singh Dari, Director Symbiosis Law School, Nagpur. The event was moderated by Dr. Nuzhat Rizvi and the vote of thanks was proposed by Professor Aditee Godbole, Assistant Professor, Symbiosis Law School, Nagpur.

REPORT ON ONLINE CAPSULE COURSE ON MOOTING SKILLS

Symbiosis Law school, Nagpur organised a capsule course on Mooting skills for the BA/BBA LL.B. batch of 2020-25 via online medium. This was the first event organised by the Moot court Association in the academic year 2020-21, for the batch of 2020-2025 after their orientation. It was a four-day course running along the dates starting from 10th October to 24th October, 2020 with multiple resource persons taking turns to teach students the basics of Mooting skills.

Day1 -10th October 2020

On the first day of the capsule course, the participants were greeted by the Moot Court Association with a brief introduction about the resource person followed by the Welcome address by the Director, Dr. Sukhwinder Singh Dari. The speaker of the day was Advocate Vadeendera Joshi who himself is an alumnus of Symbiosis Law school, Pune with expertise in constitutional law, criminal Law etc while he practices in High court of Hyderabad. He gave the students a very realistic introduction to Mooting, making it a very interactive session where the students were presented with an actual moot problem and were taught how to separate facts and assumptions to draft concrete issues while also taking interest in the continuous question and answer parley that was taking place. The session was concluded by the vote of thanks.

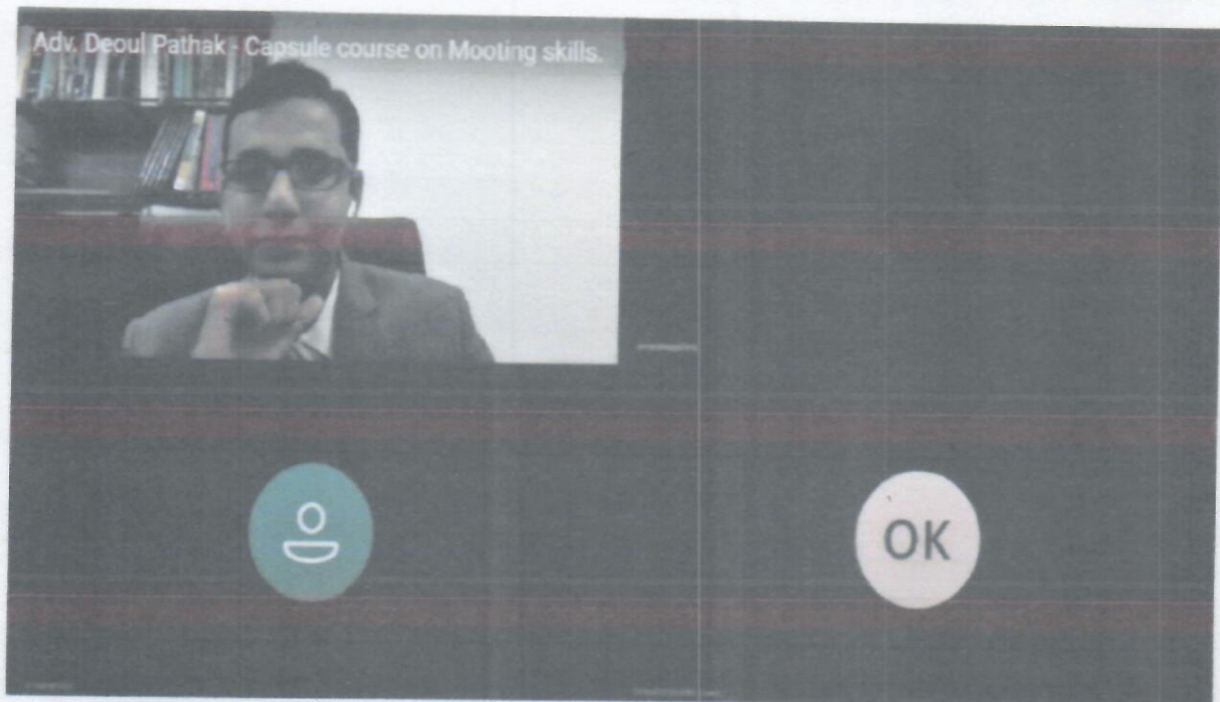

Day 2 - 17th October 2020 Session I

The second day of the course began with a brief introduction of the resource person for Session I. The speaker for that session was Advocate Rangam Sharma who is a part of corporate and technology practice at J. Sagar Associates. He introduced Drafting of a Memorandum and Pleading to the students. He went on to discuss the format and technicalities of drafting a Memorandum including the nitty-gritties like index, Statement of Jurisdiction, citations etc. by showing the students a sample Memo that he had drafted as a student. He also included in his session the correct way to compile a compendium and how to use it as well while also brushing on the concept of drafting pleadings in a memo and also how to plead, by using interactive method with the students. The session was subsequently closed by the vote of thanks.

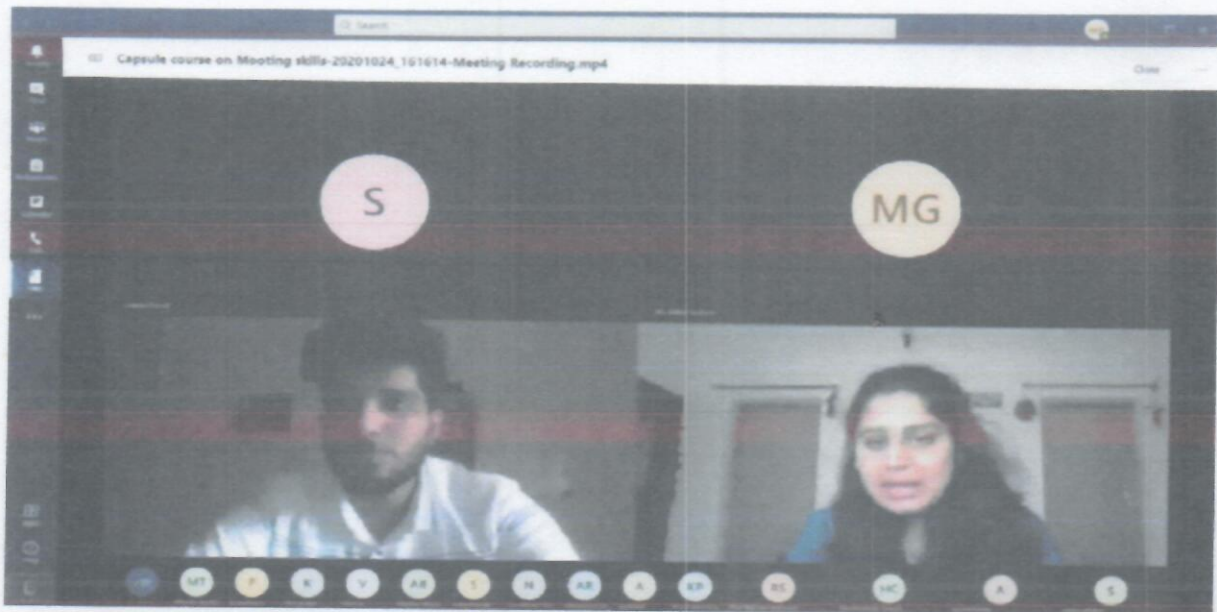

Day 2 - 17th October 2020 Session II

The second session began with a brief introduction about the resource person. Advocate Deoul Pathak who practices in the commercial side of civil litigation with a concentration on IPR and Arbitration was the guest speaker. Continuing with the Day's theme, Advocate Pathak introduced the correct way of legal research for memorandum Drafting. With basic do's and don'ts, he introduced the ethical methodology of Legal research with the help of sample memos and comparative tables. The students were taught to scan the facts comprehensively so that they were able to gather the facts with legality to back them up when the issues are drafted and pleaded. The session included a sample moot problem where the students drafted and pleaded on the spot. The session was rounded off by the vote of thanks.

Day 3 - 18th October 2020

On the third day of the course there were three speakers who addressed the students. Advocate Pooja Rao Putrevu an associate with Shivdas and Shivdas law chambers, Advocate Megha Pillai an associate with Novojuris Legal and Advocate Akarsh S.V also an associate with Rights and marks were the three resource persons. They took a combined session where they addressed the students on memorial architecture and the manner of addressing the judges in Moot Courts. They encouraged them to ask questions about anything they did not understand in the capsule course or had any doubts. They talked about courtroom mannerisms, what or what is not acceptable in front of a Judge, the architecture of a memorandum. They also depicted an on the spot role-play of a moot court where they showed how to Plead and answer a judge with the correct terminology making it a very interactive session. The session concluded with vote of thanks.

Day 4 - 24th October 2020

It was the last session of the Online capsule course on Mooting skills. The Speaker of the day was Advocate Atharva Aryan Singh. His session was all about International Moots. He shared his experiences with the students of his participation in the Nuremberg Trial, Germany. He explained how to approach and prepare for an international Moot court competition. He also answered questions about how to balance academics and co-curricular activities, motivating students to be organised. He also went on to explain how to make your resume strong. The session and the entire capsule course concluded with a final vote of thanks.

The entire event was organised and coordinated by the Moot Court Association of SLS, Nagpur.

The Online Capsule Course On Mooting skills received overwhelming participation and response by the students an all four days making it a huge success.

Committed to providing quality education, Symbiosis Law School, Nagpur aims at the holistic development of its students. The institute achieves this goal by organizing various curricular and co-curricular activities for the students throughout the year.

COURSE PERSPECTIVE:

Mooting is about developing your capacity to argue persuasively, convincing listeners to accept your particular position or point of view. It is not just your ability to argue, you also need to demonstrate a good understanding of the relevant law and should know how it should be applied. With this objective, this Course equips the learner with all the aspects required for becoming a good mooter. With the help of this skill share course, students will be able to learn about mooting, research, drafting and arguing skills. The aim of this course is to develop technical skills required for mooting through a dynamic combination of virtual classroom experience, practical hands-on exercises, and doubt solving sessions.

To this end, all the students will be able to learn to draft a memorial, understand the use of legal jargons while arguing and will get the practical experience of arguing a moot proposition.

OBJECTIVES AND GOALS:

The course intends to focus on the following issues:

1. To introduce students to Moots and Mooting.
2. To enable the student to understand the necessity of participating in Moot Court Competitions.
3. To learn to draft the memorials.
4. To understand the importance of use of citations during arguments.
5. To learn Courtroom mannerisms

COURSE CONTENT: The course is divided into 8 modules which would be concentrating upon various intricacies of Mooting.

Workshop on Research Methodology

19th September, 2020

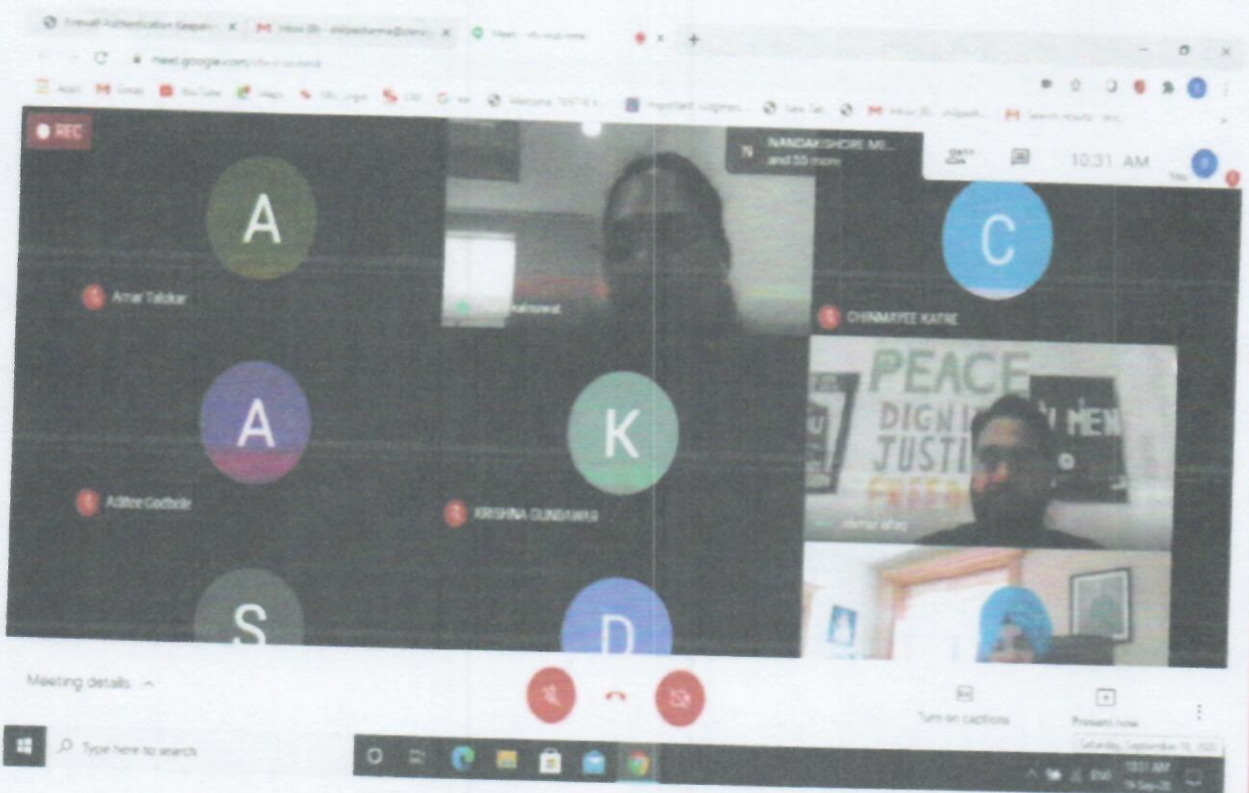

Symbiosis Law school Nagpur organised a workshop on research Methodology, on 19th September 2020 from 09.00am to 12.00pm. Continuing the tradition of bringing out the best in Students in terms of good research work, Dr. Sukhvinder Singh Dari, Director of Symbiosis Law School, Nagpur in his Welcome Address shown his inclination towards making training on research as intricate part of student's all round development. While addressing, he stressed on the importance of research. He also thanked the participants for attending the workshop.

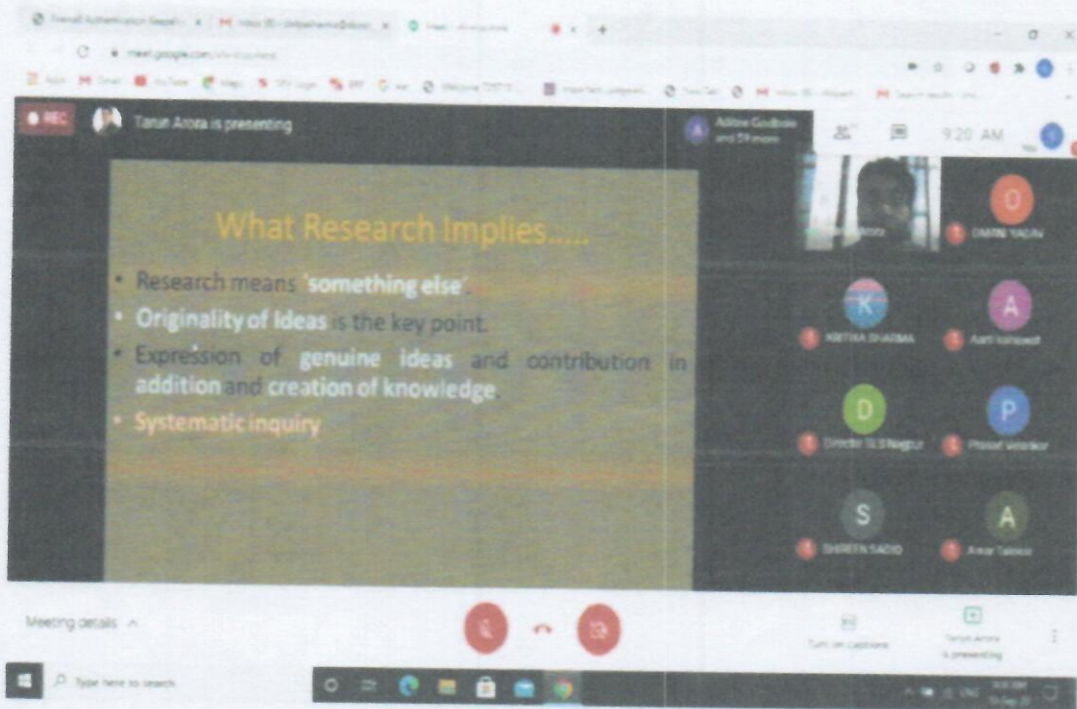

The Speaker of the workshop Prof (Dr) Tarun Arora, who is Dean, School of law, Central University of Punjab, Bhatinda emphasized on laying concrete foundation for good research work. He guided the students on art of writing a research article. He shared inputs on four aspects like purpose of research, credit of knowledge, systematic enquiry and making reforms in the written work. The critical evaluation being the core part of research study, he helped the students in understanding the nuances of research right from title framing till drawing of conclusion in nutshell.

The Second Speaker for the session Prof Ahmar Afaq, Assistant Profesor, Symbiosis Law School, Hyderabad, shared his insights on steps involved in publishing the paper in Scopus indexed Journals/Publications and various citation styles, tools and technique for collecting data of research. Citing interesting examples he opened the Pandora box of empirical research and navigated the thought process of students by showcasing that the new dimension added by the researcher helps in qualitative findings and suggestions. He helped in understanding how to choose journals for publication of articles written by research students. All the students appreciated the efforts of the Law School in enriching their experience in the field of research.

Dr. Aarti Mohan Kalnawat, faculty, SLS, Nagpur Moderated both the sessions and introduced the resource persons, Vote of thanks in the first session was proposed by Prof Aditee Godbole , Faculty, SLS Nagpur and in the second session by Madam Trupti Kokate, Teaching Assistant, SLS Nagpur.

SYMBIOSIS LAW SCHOOL, NAGPUR

Constituent of Symbiosis International (DEEMED UNIVERSITY)

Established under Section 3 of the UGC Act 1956

Re-accredited by NAAC with "A" Grade (3.58/4) – Awarded Category – I by UGC

Report of Literary week organised by Debate and Literary Cell of Symbiosis Law school, Nagpur.

The commencement of the new semester also brought with it the commencement of the Preparation of the First Ever Literary week of Symbiosis Law school, Nagpur. Members of the Literary Cell and other students alike were brimming with enthusiasm for the same.

It was a two-day event.

DAY 1 OF THE EVENT January 2,2020

On the first day of the Literary Week, Symbiosis Nagpur was honoured to welcome Dr. Supantha Bhattacharya. He was felicitated by the faculty in charge Dr. Nuzhat Fatima Rizvi.

Dr. Bhattacharya is an associate professor and PHD supervisor in Hislop College, Nagpur.

He is a renowned Theatre artist having acted in over 150 plays in English, Hindi, Marathi and Bengali. He conducted an orientation seminar on Law and Theatre which was enjoyed thoroughly by the students. A full moot court hall was the evidence for the same.

The event was co hosted by the student Co-ordinator Shambhavi Sharma.

DAY 2 OF THE EVENT JANUARY 6,2020

On the second day, Debate and literary cell organised an extempore competition titled pick a chit.

The event witnessed the participation of more than 50 students. It was conducted in two venues that is the moot court hall and the assembly hall. It was quite heart warming to see students passionately sharing their views on contemporary issues. Dr. Salu D Souza, Dr. Nikhil Polke, Prof. Aditee Godbole and Prof. Saylee Surjuse judged the extempore.

The entire event was possible under the aid and guidance of Sukhvinder Singh Dari, the impeccable planning skills of Dr. Nuzhat Fatima Rizvi and the dedicated efforts of the student members of the Debate and Literary Cell.
